Naples, July 13, N. S.

ON the 10th returned to this Port from a Cruize, two of the King's Gallies, who were relieved by two others. Several Tranſport Veſſels, laden with Oil, Oats, and Corn, continue to arrive in this Port from Apuglia and Calabria, for the Uſe of the King's and the Spaniſh Troops in the State of Genoa; and M. Barretti, the Agent Victualler, has hired ſix Ships, in order to tranſport Flower to the ſaid Troops; as they are ſmall, and prime Sailers, it is thought they will eſcape the Britiſh Men of War. Many other Tranſports are returned to this Port from Port Ercole, after having unloaden there their Cargoes of Proviſions, Ammunition, and Stores. On the 7th, by a Sentence of the Committee of the Inconfidents, M. Gregory Grimaldi was condemned to an Impriſonment at the Iſland of Pantellaria for Life, M. Giordano to the Gallies for Life, and M. de Martys, for ten Years Confinement in the Fortreſs of Syracuſa: They are convicted of Diſaffection to this Government, by having carried on an Intelligence with the Auſtrians in their late Incurſions into the Kingdom of Naples. On the 12th M. de l'Hopital, the French Ambaſſadour, ſet out hence for the Iſland of Iſchia, for the Benefit of the Baths.

Rome, July 17. On the 14th, ſeveral Soldiers out of each Troop of the Spaniſh Regiment La Reine Cavalry paſſed through this City for Naples, to purchaſe Horſes to compleat that Regiment. On the 16th, the Duke of Bracciano paſſed by this City from Naples to Spain, agreeable to the Orders he had received from that Court. On the 11th and 17th Inſtant, Cardinal Albani received two Expreſſes from Germany, with Inſtructions concerning the Election of the Great Duke of Tuſcany to the Imperial Dignity.

Genoa, July 17, N. S. On the 11th Inſtant, four large Neapolitan Veſſels, and Yeſterday two half Gallies of the ſame Nation, arrived here, all laden with Artillery and Ammunition for the Spaniſh Army. All the heavy Artillery lately landed out of the Veſſels arrived here, is ſent to the Army, and the Head Quarters removed to Novi. It is aſſured from thence, that a Corps of Spaniſh and Genoeſe Troops were marched to join Don Philip's Army between Acqui and Alexandria, after which Junction, it is ſuppoſed they will undertake the Siege of Alexandria. Two Days ago, a Battalion of the Ligurian Regiments marched into the Valley of Polcevera, and was followed by another this Morning, which are to proceed to Novi, where a general Council of War is to be held Tomorrow. The Auſtrians are encamped at Sales, and extend as far as Tortona to cover that Place, having two Bridges over the River Po, to keep open the Communication with the Milaneſe. His Sardinian Majeſty is at Alexandria, making proper Diſpoſitions for its Defence, and it is believed that his Army will encamp near that City, keeping a Communication with the Auſtrian Army to oppoſe the Deſigns of the Enemy.

Florence, July 20. On the 17th Inſtant, agreeable to the Regulation fixed and agreed upon by the Regency, and Marqueſs Silva, the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Conſul at Leghorn, for the Paſſage through Tuſcany of about 6000 Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops, the firſt Column, conſiſting of 1000 Foot, 350 Horſe, and 80 Gunners, arrived at Radicofani, and proceeded on the 18th to St. Guerico, on the 20th to Bon Convento, on the 21ſt they are to be at Siena, the 23d at Poggibonſi, and on the 24th and 26th at Caſtle Fiorentino and Fucecchio, and thence they are to march into the State of Lucca. Two other Columns are to follow by the ſame Road, but on Condition that they are not to enter Tuſcany till the other are marched out. This Evening the Great Duke's Swiſs Guards marched out of Florence towards Bologna, in order to proceed to Inſpruch, where they are to halt, in order to receive his Royal Highneſs's Orders as to their proceeding farther: They eſcorte four of the Great Duke's fine Coaches, and two Caſes with Things of Value.

Venice, July 23, N. S. We have received the following Journal from the Auſtrian Army, from the 12th to the 18th Inſtant. From the 12th to the 14th neither Army made any Motion. Great Numbers of Deſerters came to us from the Enemy's Camp. On the 15th we were informed, that the French and Spaniards were in Motion towards Alexandria, and that a Detachment from Don Philip's Army was alſo in Motion towards Acqui, having thrown Bridges over the Bormida. The 16th, our Army decamped from Terre di Garroſoli, and marched to Pieveſa, in order to cover Alexandria, and the better to obſerve the Motions of the Enemy. The Head Quarters were at Monte Caſtello; at the ſame Time the King of Sardinia cauſed ſeveral Bridges to be made acroſs the Tanaro. One of our Captains of Huſſars, with his Company, having met 400 of the Enemy's Horſe in a Wood, found Means to retreat into the Plain, where he attacked the Enemy,

Enemy, who followed him, and having killed an Officer and ſeveral of the Men, purſued them for four Miles, till they came near their Infantry, and brought back ſeveral Priſoners. The ſame Day great Numbers of Deſerters came to our Camp, and 107 of the Genoeſe Troops came to Alexandria. The 17th in the Morning, the Enemy's Horſe was diſtant only five or ſix Miles from Alexandria, and their Picquets came in a Manner to the Gates of the Town. On the 18th our Army made another Motion, and paſſed the Tanaro, having the Infantry on the Left towards Monte Caſtello, and the Cavalry on the Right towards Rivarone and Baſignana, the Head Quarters being at this laſt Place. We are here conveniently poſted to march where it ſhall be moſt neceſſary. The Infant Don Philip is ſtill at Acqui; we have no Idea of his Deſigns, nor what Motions his Army is likely to make. Another Party of our Huſſars alſo on the 18th fell in with a Party of the Enemy near Alexandria, killed ſome of them, and took Priſoners three Grenadiers and a Quarter-maſter.

Carlſhamn, July 15, O. S. His Swediſh Majeſty goes this Morning from hence to General During's near Helſingbourg, where he propoſes to wait for the Arrival of Prince William his Brother. The Report is current in this Country, that, by Order of the Regency at Konigsberg, the four Engliſh Prizes made by Dagenaer, have been arreſted at Pillau. Count Horn, one of his Swediſh Majeſty's Aid de Camps, will ſet out in a few Days to meet Prince William at Stralſund, or Roſtock, his Highneſs being to embark at one of thoſe Places.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army, from the 27th to the 30th of July, N. S. dated from the Head Quarters near Johannisberg.

July 27. A Report was received from Colonel Wilezewski, giving Account of the Advantage he had gained in the Night over the Pruſſians, by a bold Attempt made in the following Manner: He, together with Lieutenant Colonel Deſoffi, having ſlipt into a Wood behind the Pruſſian Camp, attacked the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Bredow, which was foraging near Gerſhitz, between Sadowa and Jaromirs, and broke them, as well as 300 more, who covered the ſaid Foragers; and in this Rencounter one Lieutenant, four ſubaltern Officers, and 78 Men were made Priſoners, amongſt whom were found ſome of Bonin and Poſadowski's Regiments of Dragoons, beſides ſeveral Servants belonging to the Artillery.

Being returned, in the Afternoon, he went upon another Expedition, and purſued 300 Huſſars, ſupported by ſeveral Squadrons of Horſe, and drove them almoſt to their Camp, from whence ſeeing the two Regiments of Ziethen and Brunikowski's Huſſars advance to their Succour, he was obliged to retire; and as his Horſe was killed under him, he would have periſhed without the Aſſiſtance of his Officers, who killed upon the Spot one of the Pruſſians who was going to knock him on the Head, diſperſed the reſt, and after having carried him a-foot ſome thouſand Paces from thence, found another Horſe for him and ſaved him. In the firſt of theſe Actions the Pulk of Wilezewski had only a few Men wounded, and ſeveral Horſes killed. The ſecond coſt the Lives of ſeven Pacztowy, and three others were wounded.

The Temiſwariens, poſted upon the Borders of the Elbe, have this Morning charged the Pruſſian Huſſars and Infantry who guard the Bridge of Lochaniz.

Six Deſerters who had ſwam over the Elbe joined us. As they had been purſued, one of them was wounded by a Muſket-ſhot in the Back. They were followed by ſeveral others of the ſecond Battalion of Guards.

Upon the 28th, General Nadaſti attacked a Convoy from Glatz which was going to the Pruſſian Army, and brought off 80 Horſes, and made nine Men Priſoners.

This Morning our Uhlans and the Croats had a Skirmiſh with ſome Pruſſian Huſſars and Troopers, who were Foraging before the Left Wing, and as our Men were preparing to ſurround them, they retired into a Village, where there was ſome Infantry and Cannon. The Uhlans loſt two Horſes, and one Towarzyſz was wounded. We had Advice from Lieutenant Colonel Monro, that the Pruſſians had laid ſome Bridges at Zderas, below Smirchitz. One of their Poſtilions, who was taken, gave Information alſo, that they had laid ſome over the River near Jaromirz; and we had other Advices, that their Army was preparing to make a Motion, though we could not learn whether it was to be on the Side of Smirchitz, or of Jaromirz.

Prince Charles ordered the Corps de Reſerve, under the Command of Lieutenant General Philibert and Major General Spada, to march to the other Side of the Adler, where it was poſted on the Right of the Village of Slatina.

A Trumpet, accompanied by two Pruſſian Officers, came to a Village near the Mountain of the Croats, having demanded Leave to ſpeak to their commanding Officer, whom he acquainted in the King of Pruſſia's Name, that if they did not forbear firing upon the Patrol, the King would order all the Villages not only to be pillaged, but to be burnt: Whereupon the Officer anſwered, That he had his Orders, which he was obliged to follow, and that they might do on their Side what they thought they could anſwer. Prince Charles having heard of it, gave Orders, that for the future no Parleys ſhould be allowed, and that the Trumpets who did not come alone ſhould be fired upon.

Upon the 29th, the Right Wing of the Pruſſians foraged on this Side Niedicleſtie, near the Village of Plotiſtie.

The King of Pruſſia made a Motion in the Right Line of his Left Wing, and poſted it in Flank along the Elbe from the ſecond Line of the Left Wing, beginning from Hohlolau, and reaching to Jaromirz, the Cavalry being poſted in the Wings, and the Infantry in the Center, the whole conſiſting of Bareuth's and Mellendorff's Regiments of Dragoons, Nazmar's and the Regiment of Black Huſſars, with five Battalions of Foot, and two of Grenadiers. He detached beſides four Battalions of Foot, two Battalions of Grenadiers, Bonin's and Poſadowski's Regiments of Dragoons, beſides a Troop of Huſſars, to poſt themſelves in and about the Town of Jaromirz. He alſo ſent one Battalion of Grenadiers to Naſchod, and another to Neuſtadt, where there are alſo 100 Officers of Huſſars. It is alſo reported, that he has ſent two Regiments of Horſe and one of Foot to Schweidnitz in Sileſia.

General

General Nadaſti ſent in to Prince Charles's Quarters a young Girl of between 14 and 15 Years of Age, in Man's Cloaths, whom the Pruſſians had made uſe of as a Spy. She confeſſed that ſhe had been ordered to inform herſelf of the Number of Huſſars and Uhlans who were at Aujeſt, and whether Count Nadaſti's Corps was ſtrong: She will be confin'd in the Houſe of Correction at Prague. The Huſſars who had paſſed the Elbe beyond Jaromirz, made four Running-Footmen Priſoners, amongſt whom there is one belonging to the Marquis de Valori, and have brought them to Prince Charles's Quarters.

Two of them had laid a Wager, which ſhould arrive firſt at the King's Quarters at Cholm, and the two others had ran with them to judge and decide who won. This Afternoon Lieutenant General Count Collowrath and Major General Hartſch, paſſed the Adler with five Battalions of Auſtrians, and encamped on the Left of the Mountain of the Croats, upon which a Battery of four Pieces of Cannon has juſt been erected.

Upon the 30th, by the Reports of the Pruſſian Deſerters who came in, the King had relieved Ziethen's Regiment of Huſſars by Rothembourg's Dragoons; and by other Accounts, the greateſt Part of his Huſſars were to encamp behind the Metau, between Jaromirz and Neuſtadt, in order to preſerve the Communication with the County of Glatz.

Copenhagen, July 31, N. S. The Princeſs Royal of Denmark has already begun to receive the Ladies who come to pay their Court to her. The King of Sweden is expected this Day at Helſingbourg.

Hague, Aug. 10, N. S. By Letters from Zealand there is Advice, that the Tranſports and Convoy, with the Troops and Stores for Oſtend, arrived happily in that Road laſt Saturday Evening, the 7th Inſtant. Advices from Flanders mention, that Five and twenty or thirty Battalions of French, with a conſiderable Train of Artillery, the whole under the Command of General Lowendal, are in March for Oſtend, in order to form the Siege of that Place; and the neighbouring Country was obliged to furniſh 5000 Pioneers for that Purpoſe. A Detachment of 600 Men, that was going from Antwerp by Water to throw itſelf into Dendermonde, has been obliged to return unſucceſsful, with the Loſs of a Bilander with ſome Dutch Troops. Major Harrel, who commanded the Detachment, was killed.

Oſtend, Auguſt 11. The Enemy have unmasked two Batteries, conſiſting of ſix Pieces of Cannon, three of which flank'd the Harbour, the other three the Quay and Paſſage out of Town; they kept a ſmart Fire for three Hours, but as they have not fir'd ſince Ten o'Clock this Morning, it is ſuppos'd a Battery of the Town has ſilenc'd them. We expect a ſtrong Fire from the Enemy by To-morrow Night or Friday Morning, as they are erecting a Bomb Battery about five hundred Yards from the Glacis.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Ship's Company of his Majeſty's Ship Winchelſea, that were actually on board at the Time of her taking the Anna Sampſon, and the Tartan Le Grace, That they may receive their reſpective Shares of the Produce of the Hull of the Anna Sampſon, and the Produce of the Cargo of the Tartan Le Grace, at Mr. Edward Jaſper's Office on Tower-hill, on Friday the 9th Inſtant: And ſuch Shares as are not then demanded, may be received on the firſt Friday in every Month for three Years to come.
